

Hunting: A Balanced Perspective

Module # 1: - Introduction to Hunting

- 1) Component # 1 – Introduction to Hunting

Module # 2: - Pro-Hunting Organisations

- 2) Component # 1 – Safari Club International
- 3) Component # 2 – Code of Ethics and Fair Chase
- 4) Component # 3 – Trophy Hunting & Local Associations

Module # 3: - Silent Pro-Hunting Role Players And Interested Parties

- 5) Component # 1 – NGOs, World Bodies, Treaties & Govt. Organisations
- 6) Component # 2 – Industry Stakeholders and the Hunting Economy

Module # 4: - Anti-Hunting Role Players

- 7) Component # 1 – International Anti-Hunting NGOs
- 8) Component # 2 – Moral Philosophy

Module # 5: - Mapping the Stalemate

- 9) Component # 1 – Contours of the Stalemate
- 10) Component # 2 – Clashing World Views

Module # 6: - Historical Emergence of Trophy Hunting & its Place In Africa:

- 11) Component # 1 – The Emergence of Hunting & the Primitivist Defence
- 12) Component # 2 – The Historical Emergence of Trophy Hunting in Africa
- 13) Component # 3 – What Hunting “is not”
- 14) Component # 4 – What Hunting “is”:
- 15) Component # 5 – Trophy Hunting and “True Hunting”

Module # 7: - The Politics and Culture of Hunting

- 16) Component # 1 – The Political Nature Of The Hunting Debate
- 17) Component # 2 – Hunting And Culture
- 18) Component # 3 – The Hunting Experience as a Historical Symbolic Construction
- 19) Component # 4 – Hemingway and Ortega Meet Naess
- 20) Component # 5 – Hunter-Gatherer Symbolism

Module # 8: - Integrity and the Hunting Experience

- 21) Component # 1 – Integrity and the Trophy Hunting Experience
- 22) Component # 2 – Integrity and Anti-Hunting Positions
- 23) Component # 3 – Integrity and Trophy Hunting of The Big Five In Botswana & RSA
- 24) Component # 4 – Pondering the Conclusion