Trails guide

Course info and getting started

Our trails guide course is the recommended follow-on to our field guiding/game ranging course. Written by Lex Hes and Anton Lategan of EcoTraining, which is one of the foremost practical guiding training organisations in Southern Africa. This is a must for field guides who want to take their guiding to the next level or those who have enjoyed our field guiding/game ranging course and wish to explore dangerous animals from an in-depth perspective.

Important notice: Certificates earned by completing the WildlifeCampus Guiding courses bear the FGASA logo but do not provide the graduate with a FGASA qualification.

Please visit the FGASA website for full information on what is required to gain this qualification.

Course type

The WildlifeCampus courses are online courses. You can download the course content in PDF format, so you do not need to be online to study (you will need to be online to take the tests, though).

There is one test for each component of a course. Tests are multiple choice and not written tests. Students may attempt these tests as many times as required until they have achieved the passing mark. Once a test is passed, it cannot be taken again.

Duration

Average 0-3 months. There are no deadlines; you may complete courses at your own pace.

Certification

Upon completion of the course, you'll receive an industry-recognised digital certificate demonstrating your commitment to upskilling yourself.
