Our hospitality courses

WildlifeCampus offers five specialised hospitality courses that provide a powerful, practical foundation for success in the lodge industry. Designed to build both operational and leadership capabilities, these courses prepare you to manage teams, enhance guest experiences, and drive financial performance, making you a sought-after professional in the hospitality and tourism sector.

Game Lodge Management

Gain a comprehensive understanding of lodge operations, from staffing and guest services to food and beverage excellence and the latest technology trends. This course prepares you for the realities of running a lodge and opens the door to management opportunities.

Game Lodge Cooking

Explore the art and logistics of cooking! This course covers everything from menu planning and bush dining to kitchen hygiene, procurement, and catering for diverse guest preferences.

Game Lodge Economics

Master the financial side of lodge management. Learn to budget, interpret financial reports, forecast revenue, and apply pricing strategies that boost profitability while maintaining top-tier service. Ideal for aspiring managers and decision-makers.

Front of House Lodge Operations

Develop the skills essential for guest-facing roles. Authored by Wild Dreams Hospitality, this course covers guest relations, service standards, communication, and daily lodge operations, making it ideal for those who are the face of the lodge.

Housekeeping Supervisor

Designed for current and future supervisors, this course covers staff coordination, quality control, inventory, and guest satisfaction. It's perfect for those who aim to lead housekeeping teams with professionalism and efficiency.

Each course leads to an industry-recognised certificate, helping you stand out to employers and progress confidently in your hospitality career.

Certification

WildlifeCampus certifications are highly recognised in the wildlife, conservation, and hospitality industries. They offer immense value to individuals looking to establish or advance their careers.

As highlighted by Hayley Cooper, founder of Wild Dreams Hospitality, these certificates provide extensive knowledge and demonstrate a candidate's passion and dedication to the field. Wild Dreams Hospitality emphasises the impact of WildlifeCampus courses on career development.

Hayley herself is a testament to their value, having completed the WildlifeCampus Game Lodge Management Course in 2009.

She credits this certification with helping her transition into the competitive game lodge sector in South Africa, as it provided her with a deep understanding of the industry and respected certification to enhance her CV.

Today, Hayley has come full circle, creating her own Front of House Lodge Operations Course for WildlifeCampus based on her extensive experience in hospitality. She highlights the exceptional quality and thoroughness of WildlifeCampus courses, noting that they address the industry's theoretical and practical aspects.
