The guide's guide to guiding

By Garth Thompson

Course info and getting started

In terms of the ecological knowledge required by guides, there are many available courses, but no other course covers the critical 'soft skills' explored in this course. What differentiates the competent from the truly exceptional and successful guide? This course has the answers and the skills you may be looking for.

Whether you are an aspiring, practising or professional guide, this course will remind you why you chose this career to begin with, impart new skills and perspective and leave you refreshed and re-motivated to provide guiding experiences at the very highest level. Written and revised by Garth Thompson, one of the world's best guides, and illustrated with superb humour by Dov Fedler, this course is quite simply a must for every field guide and game lodge manager. It is the best investment you can make in the wildlife industry.

Course type

The WildlifeCampus courses are online courses. You can download the course content in PDF format, so you do not need to be online to study (you will need to be online to take the tests, though).

There is one test for each component of a course. Tests are multiple choice and not written tests. Students may attempt these tests as many times as required until they have achieved the passing mark. Once a test is passed, it cannot be taken again.

Duration

Average 0-3 months. There are no deadlines; you may complete courses at your own pace.

Certification

Upon completion of the course, you'll receive an industry-recognised digital certificate demonstrating your commitment to upskilling yourself.
