About this course

Created by Hayley Cooper, a certified career coach, multi-business owner, lodge manager, author, and creator of the Front of House Lodge Operations course for WildlifeCampus', this course is packed with insights from her extensive experience.

Hayley founded Wild Dreams Hospitality, a company specialising in hospitality recruitment, consulting, and training services. Her coaching options range from one-on-one express calls to help with specific questions to interview preparation sessions and long-term personalised coaching. She also offers holistic career clarity coaching through group programs like Aligning Dreams: Career Clarity.

With 25 years of hospitality and tourism industry expertise, Hayley excels at guiding people toward value-aligned careers that feel like a natural extension of who they are.

Although this is a short course, it is thoughtfully designed to set you on the right path toward building a career that truly resonates with you.
