Introduction to Hospitality

About this course

This short course is an introduction to the basic principles of the hospitality industry, with a focus on game lodges. We explain the meaning and purpose of hospitality, how it's uniquely applied in lodges, and its broader role in tourism, conservation, and sustainability.

We cover key lodge departments (accommodation, food and beverage, guest services, guiding, and operations) and how they work together to deliver exceptional experiences. We also cover essential skills in professionalism, communication, and teamwork while guiding learners through the guest journey from arrival to departure. We offer hospitality career guidance and information that will help you assess whether a career in hospitality aligns with your interests, strengths, and goals.

This course is the ideal foundation for further study in areas such as Game Lodge Management, Game Lodge Cooking, Game Lodge Economics, Front of House Lodge Operations, Housekeeping Supervisor, Field Guiding and more!
